

Love Light

S. Furster 2014

Here's a story of a lady, who fears the night
But in the story of this lady, she finds her light
And though the words are slightly faded, her futures bright
Because she's found the way, she'll
Follow the love light, she's keeping it in sight
And now she's bound to say, I'll
Follow the love light, follow the love light

So I'm singing 'bout a lady who fears the song
I sing about her but just maybe, I got it wrong
It's the words that make her shaky, they're just too strong
But if I've found a way to Follow the love light, I'm keeping it in sight
Well then I'm bound to say, I'll
Follow the love light, follow the love light

Come and meet me at the quarry
You won't have to say you're sorry
And if its dark, well, don't you worry
Cause I'll bring along my light of love for you.
Be the hero of my story
And in the dark we'll shine with glory
Cause I'll bring along my light of love for you.
While I sing a song of love and light for you.
Cause I'll bring along my light of love for you.

Love light

If it's raining at the quarry, well, then you know
We'll take it easy, there's no hurry, we'll take it slow
The way ahead is sometimes blurry, but we got to go
Because we've found a way, to Follow the love light, we're keeping it in sight
And now we're bound to say, we'll
Follow the love light, follow the love light

Come and meet me at the quarry
You won't have to say you're sorry
And if its dark, well, don't you worry
Cause I'll bring along my light of love for you.
Be the hero of my story
And in the dark we'll shine with glory
Cause I'll bring along my light of love for you.
While I sing a song of love and light for you.
Cause I'll bring along my light of love for you.
