

Grateful Eyes S Furster. For Laura 1982 /2014

Commiserate, reciprocate
You know it's really not too late to find.
Reactivate and speculate
You know you're in that crazy state of mind.
Deliberate, illuminate
and turn on times you thought you left behind.

Reality, finality
It's worth another look to see it show.
Amenity, tranquility
There really is no enemy to know.
Symmetry, infinity
It's hard to let the painless subtleties go.

Now that you've all gone away
It's just that kind of day
To throw my cares away

Idealize to organize
You look around and then surmise to be.
Harmonize and realize
And use a pair of grateful eyes to see.
Memorize and then devise
To let another fantasy go free.

Identify and then deny
Feelings of another lie of love.
Solidify and liquefy
The life within and let it cry, "Enough!"
Pacify and amplify
Return the colors to the sky above.

Now that I'm in the zone
I find when I'm alone
It's all I've ever known.
